

Association of Young Irish Archaeologists February 26th-28th 2010

University College Cork

The 42nd annual conference of the Association of Young Irish Archaeologists (AYIA) will take place in University College Cork from 26th to 28th February 2010.

This annual event is being hosted in cooperation with the Department of Archaeology, UCC and will provide an opportunity for those embarking on their archaeological careers or continuing their academic study to showcase their research. The conference and associated activities are open to all members of the public.

CALL FOR PAPERS

Papers are sought on any aspect of archaeology from undergraduate, postgraduate and early career researchers. Poster presentations are also welcome. If you would like to present a paper, please send an abstract of c.250 words by Friday 18th December 2009. Sessions will take place over two days and will consist of 20 minute papers, followed by open discussion.

The conference fee of €20 includes a wine reception on Friday evening, tea and coffee, lunch on both days and a fieldtrip on Sunday. This fee will be waived for speakers.

For further information please contact us at: ayiacork2010@hotmail.com